Welcoming El Ami Wounded Soldiers of the IDF

This week, our community is privileged to welcome El Ami: Wounded Soldiers of the IDF. Through their visits to our various Community Minyanim, we'll have the chance to listen to their stories and gain insight into their experiences. As an organization dedicated to supporting wounded soldiers, El Ami brings a message of resilience and strength.

Through solidarity trips many in our community have formed deep connections with these individuals, and now, we anticipate the opportunity to further engage with them and show our unwavering support.

Join us as we come together to honor their service and sacrifice. Submitted by Moshe Enayatian.

185TH Anniversary of Allah Dadi - Gym Minyan Event, Wed, May 22

This past Passover marked the 185TH Anniversary of Allah Dadi, where over 30 of our Mashadi ancestors were killed, and the rest forced to convert to Islam or die. In an effort to teach our youth about our heritage (how we became 'crypto Jews' for 100 years, risking our lives to keep kashrut & holidays in secret) our teens are invited to Shaare Shalom on Wed May 22nd at 7:30 PM for an evening of education, artisinal pizza, sushi, prizes, and more. Thank you to our sponsors, and to our members who keep our heritage alive. Submitted by The Mashadi Heritage Team
