Honoring Dr Farrokh Dilmanian
 The Higher Education Committee is very honored to be able to introduce the research topics of Dr Dilmanian and describe the practical importance of his work this Shabbat December 15 at Shaare Shalom – as on the same evening he will be receiving an award for his work from the International Association of Top Professionals at Plaza Hotel, Manhattan. Dr Dilmanian received his Bachelor and Master's degrees in Physics from Technion in Israel; his PhD in Nuclear Physics from MIT and post doctorate from Washington University. Over the years Dr Dilmanian has been issued many patents for his inventions - for a variety of systems and methods and he is currently Professor of Research, Departments of Radiation Oncology, Neurology, and Radiology at Stony Brook University. His radiation methods reduce tissue damage and increase recovery and is being designed in a major new radiation system. Please join us at the conclusion of services at Shaare Shalom in appreciation of his work that has the potential to save many lives. Submitted by Mansour Karimzadeh.
