Central Board Announcement:

REFLECTOR VEST REMINDER

As nights have been starting much earlier, we would like to remind all of our community members to please use caution when walking or riding bikes. We should never assume that all passing vehicles can always see us. We would like to remind everyone to bring your reflectors and vests with you to Kanissa. For those who forget, we have placed new reflector vests at all of our minyan's this Friday night. Submitted by Andy Levian.

OHR ESTHER WEEKLY DIGEST: 11-17-20

AIRHEADS??? You don't have to be absent minded to enjoy these, but you might need a good dentist. Kids welcome!
POLL OF THE WEEK: If you were Abraham, would you pass G-d's test and agree to bind and sacrifice your son?
 A) Yes B) No C) Depends if he is on his Xbox
SHALOM BAYIT TIP: It's okay to constructively criticize, but know the currency: For every criticism, deposit at least 4 compliments. (P.S. Never EVER criticize without purpose.)
JEWISH FACT: Respecting parents is a mitzvah with a defined reward: long life. Rules: Don't contradict parents in public, stand when they enter a room, help them get dressed or eat when they are no longer capable, etc.
Parsha Preview: TOLDOT! After being barren, Rebecca becomes pregnant with rumbling twins: Esav & Jacob. Isaac favors Esav (because he hunts game), and Rebecca favors Jacob. A starving Esav sells his birthright to Jacob for a pot of lentils. At Rebecca's instructions, he wears Esav's clothes and tricks Isaac into giving him the first born blessing. Jacob flees to Lavan.
