OHR ESTHER WEEKLY DIGEST: 7-29-21

SUNDAY MORNING PRIZES! Please join us every Sunday at 9:15 AM for father & child minyan, including raffle prizes, and a treat for every child! (No treats for adults, other than quality prayer time...)

JOKE OF THE WEEK: Q: Why do Jews check lettuce for insects before eating? A: Because they really 'bug' us.

SHALOM BAYIT TIP: Dr Gottman: "Happy couples are not very different from unhappy couples; they are simply able to make easier & faster repairs to their relationship so that they can get back to the joy of being together."

JEWISH FACT: The first references to Ritual handwashing ("Netilat yadayim") are rooted in the Torah (Leviticus 15:11), but are expounded upon by our rabbis (nowadays, even after washing with soap, we still do ritual hand washing with a cup or vessel).

PARSHA PREVIEW: Eikev! Moses promises rewards for adherence to Torah: fertility, agricultural success, etc. Hashem will drive out the pagan nations that are in Canaan. Moses recalls sin of Golden calf, Israel's near destruction, and forgiveness. "Uphold the cause of the orphan & widow"; "befriend the convert"
