Exploring Shemirat Halashon and the Impact our Words Have Every Day
 Join us for a meaningful morning learning about the power of speech with Rabbanit Coty Bitton — exploring shemirat halashon and the impact our words have every day. This topic was especially close to Sebastian's Z"L heart. Shemirat halashon was something he truly cared about and worked to embody and share with others, as he believed deeply in the power of words. May this learning continue to spread the passion and values that meant so much to him. Monday, April 27 9:30 AM Breakfast | 10:00 AM Class - 697 Middle Neck Road. We hope you can join us.

New Sponsorship Opportunity at Shaare Shalom
 As part of our ongoing efforts to enhance and beautify our beloved Shaare Shalom, we are excited to share a new landscaping initiative featuring the planting of all new trees along the interior perimeter of the property. This meaningful project offers a unique opportunity for sponsorship — a beautiful way to contribute to the growth and lasting beauty of our community Kanissa, while honoring family, celebrating simchas, or commemorating loved ones. If you interested in participating in this special SPONSORSHIP opportunity, please the Shaare Shalom Synagogue Board.
